Landlord will not be liable for any damage to property of Tenant or of others located on the Premises, nor for the loss of or damage to any property of Tenant or of others by theft or otherwise. If, however, the Premises are substantially destroyed, then this Lease may be terminated by either Landlord or Tenant, in which event the rent due hereunder will cease to accrue as of the date of such damage or destruction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is expressly understood and agreed that Tenant will not be excused from paying rent if the damage or destruction of the Premises is the result of or is attributable to the negligence or carelessness of Tenant or the guests or invitees of Tenant, and Tenant will be charged for the cost of any repairs or cleanup attributable to Tenant's carelessness or negligence. In the event of fire or other casualty, the Tenant will immediately notify Landlord.

ANIMALS

Authorization must be individually obtained for each animal and does not carry over from one animal to another. If an animal has previously been authorized to be on the premises by written addendum,

____ Landlord Initial

Tenant Initial: _____

Landlord reserves the right to revoke authorization upon reasonable notice to Tenant upon which case the animal must be removed.

Tenant understands that prohibition of animals also applies to pets of Tenant's guests and/or unexpected visitors. If Landlord or agent of Landlord finds a animal on the premises, Tenant hereby agrees to pay a fee of $300.00 as liquidated damages and an additional fee of $25.00 for each additional day animal remains on premises. This fee shall be applied in all cases, even those where Tenant is "keeping" the animal for a friend or the animal is just "visiting" with a guest or visitor of Tenant. If the animal remains on the premises for a period of seven days or more from the date first observed by Landlord, the Tenant's right to possession shall terminate and Tenant shall vacate the premises immediately and pay all sums due hereunder, including rent and penalties for the balance of the term of this Lease.

For animals allowed by the above paragraph, Tenant agrees to execute a separate Pet Addendum in such form as Landlord requires (See Attached Pet Addendum).

WAIVER

A waiver by Landlord to insist upon strict compliance with one or more covenants or promises of this Agreement or waiver of a breach of any covenant or duty of Tenant under this Lease is not a waiver of a breach of any other covenant or duty of Tenant, or of any subsequent breach of the same covenant or duty.

NOTICES

Tenant will, within five (5) days after occurrence, notify Landlord, in writing, of any alleged violation by Landlord of any of its obligations arising under this Lease or otherwise. writing within the time prescribed will constitute a total and complete waiver of said objection and will not be alleged by Tenant as any grounds for nonperformance of any provision of this Lease in a court of law or otherwise.

Any notice to Tenant shall be given by certified mail, return receipt requested, or delivered to Tenant at the Premises. If Tenant is absent from the Premises, notice may be given by leaving a copy of the notice at the Premises.

FEES AND EXPENSES

If Tenant defaults in the performance of any term or covenant required under this Lease, the Landlord may immediately or at any time after the default and without notice to the Tenant, perform the obligation. The Landlord's expenses or obligation for the payment of money, including attorneys' fees, in instituting, prosecuting, or defending any action or proceeding including interest and costs, are additional rent and due and payable by Tenant to Landlord within three days following the presentation of a bill or statement to Tenant. If the lease term has expired at the time the Landlord makes these expenditures or incurs these obligations, the amounts are recoverable by the Landlord from the Tenant as damages.

In any action to enforce the terms of this Lease, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover its costs and expenses including, but not limited to attorney's fees and expenses, incurred in connection therewith whether or not legal action is instituted.

INTERRUPTION OF SERVICE

Interruption or failure of any service in the building, if due to causes beyond Landlord's control, shall not entitle Tenant to any claim against Landlord or to any reduction in rent, and shall not constitute eviction unless Landlord fails to take measures as may be reasonable in the circumstances to restore the service without undue delay.

ABANDONMENT

If at any time during the term of this Lease, Tenant abandons the premises, Landlord may reenter the premises, by any means, without being liable for any prosecution, and without becoming liable to Tenant for damages or for any payment of any kind whatever. The Landlord may, as agent for Tenant, relet the premises for the whole or any part of the then expired term, and may receive and collect all rent payable by virtue of the reletting. The Landlord may hold Tenant liable for any difference between the rent that would have been payable under this Lease during the balance of the unexpired term, if this Lease had continued in force, and the net rent for the period realized by Landlord by means of the reletting.

If the Tenant surrenders or abandons the premises, the Landlord shall not be liable or responsible for storing or disposing of any of the Tenant's personal property remaining on the premises.

In the absence of actual knowledge of abandonment, the Landlord may presume that the Tenant has abandoned the premises if Tenant is absent from the premises for a period of 15 days unless the rent is current or the Tenant has notified the Landlord in writing of an intended absence.

MOLD

Mold consists of naturally occurring microscopic organisms that reproduce by spores. Mold breaks down and feeds on organic matter in the environment. The mold spores spread through the air and the combination of excessive moisture and organic matter allows for mold growth. Not all, but certain types and amounts of mold can lead to adverse health effects and/or allergic reactions. Not all mold is readily visible, but when it is, can often be seen in the form of discoloration, ranging from white to orange and from green to brown and black, and often there is a musty odor present. Reducing moisture and proper housekeeping significantly reduces the chance of mold and mold growth.

Tenant agrees to use all air-conditioning, if provided, in a reasonable manner and use heating systems in moderation and to keep the premises properly ventilated by periodically opening windows to allow circulation of fresh air during dry weather only. Tenant can be held responsible for property damage to the dwelling and any health problems that may result from their failure to take reasonable measures to prevent the occurrence and spread of mold or mildew or failure to notify Landlord of any mold, mildew or moisture problems immediately in writing. ## LANDLORD POINTS ADDENDUM

This Agreement is attached to and made a part of the Residential Lease Agreement ("Lease") dated 4/15/2013, by and between Tenant Name ("Tenant") and Union Properties of Gainesville, Inc. ("Landlord"), for the Property located at 123 Main Street, Gainesville, FL 32601.

The property being rented by the Tenant is located in a residential area that is governed by the City of Gainesville Codes Enforcement, Alachua County Codes, the Gainesville Police Department and Union Properties of Gainesville, Inc. The Owner of the property only has the right to rent this property by filing and paying for a Landlord Permit which is also governed by the City of Gainesville. The purpose of this Permit is to allow the Owner to use this property as a rental. Should there be any misuse of the property, including but not limited to improper parking or disturbances such as noise or parties, which violate the law or disturb the peace and quiet enjoyment of the neighbors, Codes Enforcement can issue citations to the Tenant(s) as well as assess "points" against the Owner's Permit. A certain number of violations or "points" in a 12 month period will result in the Owner being fined and subsequently, lose his Landlord Permit (his right to rent the property). Since this can cause a great financial hardship for the Owner, the Tenant must agree to take responsibility in the event any violations caused by Tenants or Tenant's guests, result in "points" against the Landlord Permit.

I understand the responsibilities as Tenant and agree to abide by the attached brochure "Guidelines For Rentals in Residential Neighborhoods". We agree to accept full responsibility for any act made by us or invitees of ours that results in a citation or a fine being assessed by Codes Enforcement and/or "points" being assessed to the property or Owner. We specifically agree and understand that any citation, fine, or point(s) as indicated above constitutes a material and non-curable violation to the Florida Residential Landlord-Tenant Act, Fla. Sta. Chapter 83, Part II. Accordingly, the following shall apply to points violating this policy.

FIRST OCCURRENCE: A written warning will be issued to Tenant specifying the point was filed and a $100.00 charge will be assessed against the Tenant.

SECOND OCCURRENCE: A $200.00 charge will be assessed against Tenant and Landlord may, in its sole and absolute discretion, declare Tenant's Lease to be in default.
